Union Pacific Mechanics Inaugurate a Strike.

The Trouble General All Along the Line of the Road.

It Was Caused by the Company's Refusal to Sign Agreements.

The Road in Good Shape for the Strike-The Rolling Stock in Condition to Run Ninety Days or Longer,

Омана, April 17.- Ву the Associated Press. | Six hundred men employed in the Union Pacific shops here struck at noon. The men who went out were machinists, boiler-makers, black smiths, molders and pattern makers The employes claim the company has acted in bad faith concerning the fillment of the agreement entered into to allow the force of men employed to reduce itself when the time of employ ment was below the standard of nine hours a day. It is claimed the com-pany, instead of allowing the force of en employed to reduce itself, actually has kept up the full quota of men, and in some shops, Omaha included, has increased its force. The company not only increased its force, but reduced the standard of time from nine hours to eight hours for a working day on January 15 of this year. The employés claim to have a written agree ment signed by General Manager Dick-inson and Assistant Superintendent Mertzheimer that while the men were working eight hours the places of the men who leave the service of the com-pany should not be filled, except when absolutely necessary in order to carry on the work to advantage.

CAUSE OF THE STRIKE. The aggrieved employés claim that no effort has been made by the company to live up to the terms of the agree ment, and that, while they are working on an eight-hour basis, other roads paying the same rate of wages per hour work their men ten hours a day. The Executive Board, representing the employés, has been endeavoring to persuade President S. H. H. Clark and J. H. McConnell, general master me-chanic of the Union Pacific system, to modify their views concerning the interpretation of the agreement to re-duce the force and increase the work-ing hours from eight to nine. The officials held several conferences with the committee, but were unable to arrive at a satisfactory agreement, and the strike today was the result.

J. H. McConnell, superintendent of motive power, in an interview, said:

"The difficulty is not a matter of wages or hours of work but simply a refusal or hours of work, but simply a refusal on the part of the company to sign the new contracts submitted by the men regulating the conditions under which they should work."

THE FIRST PROPOSITION was submitted to him, which he refused to sign. It was then taken to Mr. Clark, who also declined. One of the primary objections to the contract de-manded was that when it became necessary to reduce expenses, and the men were obliged to work eight hours per day, the company should not employ any new boiler-makers, machinists, blacksmiths or molders. The men finally withdrew this proposition, and presented another, which provided that when working eight hours per day, the company should not employ any of the above-named craftsmen until after 10 per cent of the force had been discharged. This, McConnell stated, would prevent the hiring of men while working eight hours, thereby pracworking eight hours, thereby prac-tically taking the control of the hiring of men out of the company's hands.

NUMBER OF MEN OUT. The strike will affect about twentyfive hundred men on the system, and only interests the workers of iron; or those men working eight hours instead of nine. The towns most affected, in addition to Omaha, are Denver, Cheyenne, Salt Lake, Rawlins, Armstrong, Pocotello, Evanston, Laramie, Lagrande and Shoshone.

From conversations with the officials, the consensus of opinion was that the road had never been in better condition.

road had never been in better condition to undergo a strike than at the present time. The rolling stock is in much bet-ter shape, although at the end of winter, than in October last. Of the 160 engines on the Nebraska division alone, there is not one that has not alone, there is not one that has not been in the shops in the last nine months, and the shops have been turning out two engines, on an average, per day, all of them having undergone light or heavy repairs. The officials do not hesitate to say that they can go on for the next ninety days without the men who walked out today.

President Clark refused to make any between the men and the company, saying his remarks might be miscon-strued, and irritation would rise. He believed the men as a whole would not act rashly and that the strike would not be general. The men, he said, simply asked more than the company would grant, and that he could not, to the extent desired, surrender his authority

IN THE FAR WEST.

The Strike General Along the Line Except at Denver.

DENVER, April 17.—|By the Assoclated Press.] The threatened strike of the machinists, boiler-makers and blacksmiths employed in the Union Pacific shops here did not occur today. The men are in the dark regarding the cause of the trouble, and tonight a committee was sent to Omaha to straighten things out. Many of the men employed in the shops are Knights of Labor, the balance consisting of members of the Amalgamated Association and the En-gineers, Boiler-makers and Machinists out of the Denver shops, while about two hundred who belong to the Knights of Labor will remain at their posts, as they have received orders from Assem-bly No. 82, which governs the Knights of Labor on the Union Pacific from Chicago to San Francisco, that no cause for strike exists.

At Laramie, Wyo., about thirty men quit work. It is thought at Laramie that of the seven or eight thousand men on the Union Pacific not 10 per reent will go out on the orders issued from Omaha.

At Cheyenne sixty-eight machinists and boiler-makers went out today, in obedience to the orders received from Omaha.

At Salt Lake, Utah, fifty boiler-makers, machinists and blacksmiths, out of a force of 200 shopmen, went out. Advices received at the Salt Lake out. Advices received at the Sait Lance Union Pacific headquarters report the strike general over the system, and that it extends to Butte, on the Utah Northern, to Portland, Or., on the Ore-gon Short Line, and to Cheyenne, along the line in Wyoming.

DEAD ENGINES.

The Santa Fe Railroad Short on Motive Power-The Agreements.

WICHITA, April 17 .- [By the Associated Press.] All the freight trains on the Newton and Purcell division of the Santa Fé, and on the Wichita Western, have been abandoned for lack of en gines. There are twelve dead engines at Newton, seventeen at Arkansas City nineteen at Purcell, and the road has no means of making the repairs necessary to put them in service. There were fifteen trains of cattle in the Purcell yards this morning, and only four available engines, including two switch engines sent down from the yards here. TOPEKA, April 17.—A joint meeting was held here tonight by the Santa Fé engineers, conductors, firemen, brakemen and switchmen to discuss the strike situation. The strikers say Superintendent MacHinery said that all the agreements are now considered off by the road. Committees were appointed to wait upon the management and see if wait upon the management and see if the agreements are considered can-celled, if such is the case the men do not hesitate to say that more of them will go out.

THE DETROIT.

Fast Time Made by the New United States Cruiser.

he Runs the Last Nine Miles of Her Tria Trip at a Speed Exceeding Twenty-three Miles per Hour,

By Telegraph to The Times

New London (Ct.,) April 17.—[By the Associated Press.] The new United States cruiser Detroit made a glorious record on her trial trip today. It has been a tedious wait, but it proved of great advantage to the builders. The weather was fine and the water could hardly have been in better condition The Detroit started out about 8:15 with the Naval Board aboard, and 11:30 was decided upon as the time for the real start. Up to that time she was kept circling about in the vicinity of the starting point. When she finally started her engines were kept vibrat ing to their full capacity for a long time. It took but 29 minutes 14 seconds to reach the Bache, which was anchored about nine miles from the start, and the center stake boat was passed 31 min-utes 46 seconds later. In 28 minutes 17 seconds more she reached the Blake, about nine miles further on, and 29 minutes 17 seconds later had passed he hoat at the end of the course. 6 minutes 46 seconds were occupied in turning and coming again upon the course. The run to the Blake was made in 27 minutes 37 seconds, and to the center stake hoat in 26 minutes 38 seconds. The Bache was made in 29 minutes 12 seconds. Next came the most exciting nine miles of the whole run, because it was the fastest. There had been some shak-ing up of things on board before, but now every evidence of speed was multiplied, and the Detroit flew across the finish linein 25 minutes 55 seconds. the finish linein 25 minutes 55 seconds after passing the last stake-boat at a speed of slightly over twenty knots, or upward of twenty-three miles per hour.

RAN AMUCK. Negro Prisoner in Auburn Kills Con

AUBURN (N. Y.,) April 17.—[By the Associated Press.] John Johnson known as the "Blue nigger from Clyde," ran amuck in the broom shop of the Auburn prison this morning. Armed with a sharp knife, used in cutting broom corn, he first attacked Charles Peck, a fellow-convict, leaving him dead in his tracks. He next fatally stabbed Daniel Britten, a convict, and wounded several others. The blade of the knife entered Britten's stomach He now lies in a presarious condition in the hospital. It is thought he will

He directed a vicious blow at Keeper Mitchell after the blade was broken, but did not pen-etrate his clothing. The keeper drew his revolver, but just as he was about to pull the trigger somebody hit' his arm, and the ball went wide of its mark. frightened Johnson into surrendering, however. He was taken to the prison

Peck came to his death by a wound in the breast which penetrated his heart. The autopsy showed a gash in the heart in which a finger could be in-The cause of the trouble is said to have been an old grudge held by John-son against a number of the convicts in the shop. He made a threat that as soon as Capt: Baker had a day off he would do up the shop. Baker was not on duty today, and Johnson started in early to carry out his threat. Daniel Britten, another of Johnson's victims, died at 1:80 this afternoon.

The City of Zante Wrecked

Many Lives Lost and a Large Amount of Property Destroyed.

Wrecked Buildings.

Twenty Bodies Recovered from the

The Survivors Escape, Panic Stricken, to Places of Safety-Many Are Without Shelter, and Few Have Food.

By Telegraph to The Times. ATHENS, April 17 .- [By Cable and Associated Press.] The Island of Zante, one of the principle ones of the Ionian group, was visited by a most destructive earthquake this morning. The greater part of the city of Zante was destroyed. The people were panic-stricken. The streets are blocked with the débris of the wrecked houses. So far twenty bodies have been recovered, and it is feared many more are still buried in the ruins. Many of the indabitants fled to the plains back of the city, where they wandered about, bemoaning the loss of relatives by the recent earthquake. The city presents a scene of utter deso-lation. It is doubtful if it ever recovers from the series of disasters which have recently befallen it. There will be great destitution, and outside help is urgently needed.

The earthquake shock occurred at 7:30 a.m., and a majority of the buildings that stood erect in the shocks of February and March were either thrown down or shattered so as to be unsafe for occupancy. The Church of St. Dionysius and the government offices were thrown down. Advices from the interior show that the whole island has been devastated and many island has been devastated and many of the villages destroyed. It is thought the loss of life will be very great. The news of the disaster comes in slowly, as communication with the interior of the island has been greatly interrupted by the destruction of many of the telegraph lines. The full extent of the calamity cannot be estimated at present. Warships will be dispatched from Piræus with clothing provisions and medicines for the sufferers.

It is pointed out here that the disaster is a confirmation of the prediction made a few days ago by Prof. Falb, who predicted the former earthquakes and said that disturbances more serious than the recent ones would occur on April 16 or 17. His prediction proved true, for this merning's shock was the medicines for the sufferers. true, for this morning's shock was the most severe that has ever visited the Island of Zante, which is noted for earthquakes. Since 7:30 this morning two more heavy shocks have shaken the whole Island of Zante. The people are flee-ing from all the towns to find safety on the plains and hillsides. Thousands are without shelter and few have sufficient

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

Not a Dozen Houses on the Island Inhab-itable. New York, April 17.—By the Associated Press.] The Herald's Zante dispatch, timed at 9:20 p.m., April 17, says: "Another earthquake of terrific force occurred at 7:06 this morning. It was far more violent than the first. The island is now entirely ruined. The shock lasted thirty-five seconds. Since then the ground has been in a con-tinual movement. The morning broke with lovely weather and a cloudless sky. Without warning the island oscillated with intense violence, from east to west, for nearly a minute. Clouds of dust from the falling walls of the houses and churches enveloped the city. The air rang with the shrieks of people buried beneath the ruins. The streets presented a terrible specta-cle. Entire blocks of houses were in ruins. There are fissures in the roads over fifty yards in length. All the church belfries and hotels are either down or tottering to ruins. There are not a dozen houses on the whole island inhabitable. The killed in the town number fourteen and in the villages sixteen. The injured number about two hundred. The vic-tims are less numerous than might have been expected. Owing to the hour of the shock, in the villages the destruction is incalculable, not one stone being left upon another. At the southeastern part of the island, nearest the center of the shock, there are flasures two feet wide. There was also a distinct tidal wave. The level of the ground sank one foot after the shock."

BUFFALO'S "SNEAK BILL"

Large Public Meeting Enters Strong Protests. Buffalo, April 17.—[By the Associated Press.] The City Hall was under guard all last night to prevent the Mayor from taking action under the bill passed last week by the Legislature for the appointment of new police and excise commissioners. An injunction to prevent such action was served on the Mayor and other officers this morning. Lieut.-Gov. Sheehan denies that the purpose of the bill is to cripple the

At noon a public meeting was held in the Merchants' Exchange to protest against the "sneak bill," as it is called. It was attended by the principal busi-ness men, regardless of politics. George Clinton, president of the exchange and a grandson of Gov. de Witt Clinton, and also a staunch Democrat, presided. Among the other prominent presided. Among the other prominent speakers was Ansley Wilcox, one of the leading Democrats of the city, who said the measure was passed with the aid of deliberate lying by a class of "persons who ought to be behind prison doors and nowhere else." A committee was appointed to draft appropriate resolutions.

Bissell Says Postmasters Will Finish Their Terms-A Recent Ruling on a Long-drawn-out Claim for an Office,

By Telegraph to The Times.

WASHINGTON, April 17. - [Special.] Postmaster-General Bissell today laid down another rule that will please the Republican postmasters, but will make the Democrats still more disgusted with Grover's administration than they were before. Congressman Springer asked him today what he proposed to do with a case where Mr. Cleveland, during his first term, had allowed an officer to serve out his four years, and then appointed a Democrat, who had only served one year when Mr. Harrison came in, and, for cause, replaced him with a Republican, who served three years and died, and his Republican successor is now asking to serve three years longer, to complete his four years. Mr. Bissell replied: "Let him and others who are similarly situated serve out their four-year terms, of course."

If so, the Republicans will thus be serving the larger part of Mr. Cleveland's entire eight years, and that's why the Democrats will kick.

An order for $1,250,000 of gold, engaged for export tomorrow, reduces the free gold in the treasury to about $500,000.

Carlisle is understood to be opposed to the issuance of bonds for the present at least. It is his judgement that it would be preferable to utilize a portion of the gold reserve fund until it becomes apparent that the issuance of bonds is an absolute necessity. Among the of-ficials of the Treasury Department not the least fear or apprehension is expressed any of financial embarrassment growing out of gold shipments. They are satisfied, they say, the shipments are being forced by those who will be benefited by the issue of bonds, and as soon as the brokers and bankers are positive their attempts to force and bankers. are postive their attempts to force an issue of bonds are useless, just that soon will the gold shipments cease. #### TURNED ON THE GAS.

Another unfortunate being made an attempt at cutting short his existence yesterday, and had his condition been discovered but a few moments later he would undoubtedly have been successful in the accomplishment of his purpose. The man's name was George Crossett. He apparently is about 25 years of age, and for eighteen months has been in the employ of Mrs. Bradbury at the family residence on Court street as a man-of-all-work. Many months ago he came to the lady in a pitiable condition and asked for work. More out of charity than anything else he was given employment and stayed at the place from that time on. His strange actions were frequently noticeable, but beyond be lieving that he was a little light-headed nothing was thought of them and he was allowed to go about almost as he pleased. Yesterday morning at 10 o'clock he entered the kitchen and got isto a controversy with the cook. Mrs. Bradbury ordered him out, but the fellow became insolent and said that he would not go. When young Bradbury attempted to eject him from the room he feigned to have a fit and fell down on the floor. He was then picked up and carried out bedily. A short time later he appeared at the window of his room, which was in the upper story of the carriage house, and took pains that Mr. Bradbury should see him go through the operations of taking some sort of a powder. Thinking his actions unusually peculiar, Mr. Bradbury instructed the coachman to keep a watch on him. The latter did so, and noticing a strong smell of gas about the carriage house an hour or so about the carriage house an hour or so later, traced it to Cossett's room. Finding the lock fastened, he at once broke open the door, and a flood of gas immediately poured out through the opening. Cossett was lying on the bed with a rope in his hands igsensible. At the receiving hospital Dr. Bryant applied restoratives and administered several injections, with the result of bringing him rapidly back to the life he had sought to leave. When finally able to talk, Crossett claimed that he had been ill treated by the Bradburys and not furnished with sufficient food. His story is not credited, however, as it is supposed that his mind is not quite right. He will probably be examined as to his sauity before he is again re-

Bentley told him that Mrs. Bentley was very sick, and that he was afraid she was going to die, and asked him to take Bentley told him that Mrs. Bentley was very sick, and that he was afraid she was going to die, and asked him to take the doctor down to the house as soon as possible. Dr. Burnett got in and the two drove rapidly to the Bentley home. Dr. Burnett went immediately into the house, and the witness followed shortly afterward. When he got inside he was told that his mother was dead. He walked out of the room then and went to the undertaker's. When he came back he found Bentley in the back yard washing a buggy. As the witness approached Bentley asked him if the doctor had issued a certificate of death. He (Bentley) said he had received two certificates. Bentley then told him that he would look after the buying of the casket and other funeral arrangements. The witness did not know what Bentley's occupation was previous to his marriage with Mrs. Nordholt. The two were married in San José on August 28, 1801. two were married in San José on August 25, 1801. The question as to how long Mrs.

Bentley remained in the northern part of the State at the time of her marriage was objected to by the defense as irrelevant and immaterial.

Attorney Hannon, before the Court ruled on the objection, urged that the question was most material, as he proposed to show that before the baked meats had cooled the husband was speeding his way to Los Angeles for the pur-pose of placing on record a certain deed conveying property from the de-ceased to himself.

The objection was overruled and once more the witness began.

He visited his mother's house on January 30 with Mr. Cline and a number of others at about 10 o'clock for the purpose of arresting Bentley. The various members of the party stationed themselves at the different entrances to the bouse, and Mr. Cline knocked at the front door. There was no response, and at the suggestion of the witness the front door. There was no response, and at the suggestion of the witness Sheriff Cline got in through the rear. There was a fire burning in the grate in the front room, and a heavy piece of scantling had been placed against the door. Footprints near a front window showed where some one had gone through the opening and climbed over the fence. Bentley had escaped. The party did not find him that night, and the witness saw him next at the County Jail on the day following. After the marriage of Bentley to Mrs. Nordholt the former returned from San Francisco to Los Angeles in advance of his wife. Witness accompanied Public Adwife. Witness accompanied Public Ad-ministrator Kelsey later to the Bentley house to take an inventory of the goods there. A request was made that a cer-tain truni: be taken to the County Jail, which was supposed to contain Bent-ley's clothes. The trunk was pried open and several articles belonging to Mrs. Bentley were taken out. These were placed upon the inventory. A small satchel was then also lifted out. Mr. Hayford shook this, and something inside was heard to rattle about. The satchel, upon being opened, was found to contain a small boattle of crystalline substance. The bottle was carried to substance. The bottle was carried to the District Attorney's office and some of the crystals were taken out, after which the vial was sealed up before a notary. The crystals taken out were tested by a chemist. The witness never learned where the defendant stayed on the night the Sheriff visited the house to make his arrest.

The satchel referred to was identified by the witness, and he was then turned Attorney Goodrich started in to shake the testimony of Mr. Nordholt as to the exactness of his statements by comparing his evidence given at the preliminary examination and that just taken. No material or new points however, were developed. On re-direct examination the state-arrested, that the calls to open the door had been heard by the defendant when the Speriff visited the house to arrest him on the night previous.

The witness was then excused.

English, previously used when she was first interrogated was faultless, the defense objected to the use of a go-between The Court intimated that if the same difficulty was experienced in securing answers it might become necessary to inflict punishment for contempt, and considered the employment of an interpreter the easiest way to adopt. He finally allowed the objection, however, and once more the tussel between coun

Resolutely did Mr. Goodrich fix firmly

Mrs. Bentley by her former husband, next took the stand. She had been called early on the morning of January 10 by Bentley, from her home adjoining the latter's house, and told that her mother was dying. When she arrived at the house she found the old lady frothing at the month and acting in a spasmodic manner. Soon afterward she died. Bentley came in, after a time, and looked at his dead wife and then went out again. About an hour after Dr. Burnett came Bentley arrived.

anticipated the end all too soon, for Attorney Goodrich was impatiently waiting his turn. "Oh goodness, how many questions," exclaimed the little woman as the counsel began. She then chose to consider some of the queries impertinent and of somewhat too personal a nature and flatly refused to answer. Counsel for the prosecution informed the Court that they believed the witnes would reply readily through the med-ium of a Spanish interpreter. The Judge ordered that an interpreter be brought but, inasmuch as the witness' his eye-glasses across the bridge of his nose and go at his task with a deter-mination to get the information he de-sired out of the witness. She was as great a puzzle as ever, though, and finally, becoming somewhat exasperated, the attorney remarked: "You may as well answer, for I am going to keep up these questions until next week, and get answers, too, if the Court will assist me a little. And thus the cross-examination went on until 5 o'clock, in a sort of thrust-and-parry manner. From her partial and disconnected answers it was learned that the embalmers, two in number, had been left alone in the coom where the body of the decased jury was placed in charge of a special officer. NEW INCORPOATIONS.

LOS ANGELES THEATER - Frank G. Carpenter's Chalk Talk.
PARK THEATER-A Celebrated Case.

THE town of Marysville proposes to hold a floral carnival to raise function improving the cemetery. It's a somber background for a jubilee.

Or course what is left of the People's party in Kansas will get together and organize another People's party which is to "sweep the country."

A HUNGARIAN inventor claims to have made a discovery which will revolulionize the textile industry. He asserts that he is able to spin ordinary wood pulp or cellulose into yarn, from which all sorts of textile tissus can be made in the ordinary way, equalling in appearance, durability and fastness of color the best cotton goods. The method is not only applicable to cellulose, but also to every sort of short, fibrous material for instance, rags, scraps of cotton and linen goods. The fiber, whether paper, pulp or textile refuse, can be ied before being spun into yarn, so that the dyeing of the woven material is not necessary.

FURTHER facts elicited in reference to Senate Bill No. 698 make the position of Senator Carpenter still more indefensible and show the hollowness of his defense and the mockery of his "explanation." The statements of Assemblymen Bulla and Simpson published in this morning's TIMES completely offset the claim that the defeat in the House of the bill was unknown to Senator Carpenter until after the Legislature adjourned. Both Representatives distinctly remember a conversation of which the sole subject was the defeat of this very bill. This conversation was held between Senator Carpenter and Assemblyman Bulla at the latter's desk in the House within about fifteen minutes after the bill had been defeated. Assemblyman Simpson was in close proximity at the time and heard all that was said. The case is perfectly made out. Senate Bill No. passed the Assembly and is not a law.

THERE is no longer room to doubt that the cholera has reappeared in Europe. Sunday before last ten deaths from this cause occurred at L'Orient, and sixteen cases are reported from different parts of Galicia. The breaking out of the disease thus early in the season will result in the adoption of stringent precantionary measures, and doubtless these will be the means of saving many thousands who would otherwise fall victims to its ravages. But there is still grave reason to fear that the mortality the coming summer will be greatly increased, and it is impossible to say that any civilized country is entitled to be sidered safe from the terrible visitation. So this is a time when it behooves people all over the world to be more than ordinarily careful in regard to food and drink, as it is now a thoroughly established fact that the poison nters the system only through the mouth, and acts on the victim only after having passed from the stomach into the small intestines.

CHARLES CRANALL, a wood-worker of Arroyo Grande, San Luis Obispo county brought with him to this city and exibited in the TIMES office yesterday a specimen of inlaid work which we have never seen equaled in modern workmanship. Times-Mirror Cc., Los Angeles. End of the Coal Age Approaching. What the discovery and utilization of coal for fuel has amounted to in the material advancement of the world is past all computation. It has been so important a factor in domestic life, in manufactures and in transportation that many writers have quite appropriately termed this the coal age. But there are now many indications going to show that this important epoch is drawing to a close; to use a cant term much in vogue, wegare nearing the fin de siecle. This does not imply that the industrial world is going to take a backward step, on the contrary, it will be a most decided forward movement. But the prospective change is inevitable for two principal reasons: First, because the coal supply is running short in many parts of the world; second, because better and cheaper means of securing heat and power are crowding to the front.

The recent strike of coal miners in Belgium has again brought into notice the fact that the workings of that country have been pushed to such a depth that they cannot go much farther. the same time the conditions of the trade have grown steadily worse, so that the more trying and dangerous the employment of mining has become the less wages the operatives have received. The men and women who have been employed underground have been bru talized to the last degree, and they eke out a living that is little better than starvation. In the face of all this the masters in Belgium have recently made a still further reduction in wages, and the straits of the miners are so great that they have been obliged to accept these terms. From the mere nature o the case coal-mining in Belgium cannot be continued many years longer.

The situation in other European countries, and especially in great Britain, is but little, if any, better. Away back in 1866 the philosopher, John Stuart Mill, then a member of Parliament, pointed out, in the course of a speech. that, according to expert estimates, the coal supply available at a less depth than 4000 feet from the surface would be used up in three or four generations. It was not then possible, nor is it yet, to mine coal with advantage or safety at a greater depth than 4000 feet. This speech created a profound impression in England. Mr. Gladstone, then Chancellor of the Exchequer, indorsed Mr. Mill's forecast, and said that, if conditions were not materially changed, Great Britain would have no available coal supply after 1970. A royal commission, appointed in 1866 to investigate the matter, postponed the day of coal exhaustion about three hundred years by supposing a number of things -e. g., that, as many geologists believed, coal would be found under the new red sandstone; that science would make deeper mining possible, and that consumption would be economized by better methods of burning fuel in fur naces, etc.

However, it was only six years later-in 1872-that some of the best English mines actually gave out, and the price of coal went up to a figure before unknown in Great Britain. It has had an upward tendency ever since, without bettering the condition of operators or miners. Those alluring hopes about measures beneath the new red sandstone and the rest have not been realized. One of Mill's "three or four generations" has passed; the child that is born this year will not need to attain the age of Gladstone to see the year set by that great statesman for the exhaustion of the coal mines of Great Britain.

In the United States the situation i by no means so pressing, although many of the old mines have been worked out. The new territory as yet untouched would probably be sufficient to keep the machinery of this continent and the old world, too, in operation for many generations.

But long before this exigency could arise we think that the coal age will have become a past 'era, by reason of better and cheaper means of securing general vogue. We have already found valuable substitutes in natural gas and in petroleum. The prospects are, however, that these sources of supply are not great enough to outlast even the fag end of the coal age. Electricity generated by water power, by wind power or by the utilization of some other natural forces is the olive, yew and shittam. It was world's most important resource. and for lighting, heating and all other uses that we require from fire. It will be a vast improvement over the methods of the coal age in many respects.

And, when this system shall have been so well established as to become an old story, perhaps some new genius will arise and discover a method of tapping nature's great reservoir of electricity direct, giving this element to us in inexhaustible supply without the necessity of generating it by machinery. There is no doubt that. the earth, the clouds, the upper atmosphere and perhaps the illimitable interplanetary spaces are fully charged with electricity. There are some who hold that electricity is the great dynamic agent of the universe. All we need is to find a way to intercept this flow of energy and apply it directly to our requirements. But this may be too far shead in the world's history to be a legitimate subject of speculation at present. Certainly if this feat is achieved it will be the crowning act in the Alladin-like development of electrical science, and will give to mankind his final triumph over all the elements

PARK THEATER—The stock company at the Park produced that sterling drama, A Celebrated Case, for the first time last night to a fairly good house Georgie Cooper ap-peared in the prologue and did excellently, as she always does. As is usual on first nights, there were some breaks in the movement of the play and the eyidences of insufficient rehearsals were somewhat prom inent. Mr. Roberts should be advised that a duke's wife is not a "dukess" but a duchess, and Mr. Readick should break himself of the sing-song tone of voice with which he delivers his lines. Georgia Wood-thorpe played with her usual earnest force, and was well received. The play continues during the week, with a matinee on Satur Next week The Black Crook.

ATTRACTION TONIGHT .- Frank G. Carpen ter, whose name has become a household word in America through his syndicate letters in the newspapers and through his literary articles in the big magazines, will appear at the Los Angeles Theater tonight and give his great "talk" about Famous Men and Women I Have Interviewed, illustrated by the means of a mammoth stereopticon. This "talk," as Mr. Carpenter calisit, is entirely unique. It deals with the famous people of not only our own but other continents in a bright and gossipy way, while the portraits are rare and novel. Many of them were made especially for this purpose and hence have never been seen in any other form. public weeks ago, and they seem destined to retain their reputation. The programme last evening was more on the popular order, the music being less classical than that presented at either of the previous concerts, and therefore gave, perhaps, more pleasure to the average listener not schooled in the ethics of classic music.

Mrs. E. Hanchette-Chown played Beethoven's concerto with a verve and vigor that called out prolonged applause and a magnificent floral lyre.

Mrs. W. D. Bloodgood, whose rich contraito voice has won admiration wherever heard, sang two selections, and was recalled each time.

The zither solo by O. Vogel also won an encore, as did the flute solo by W. C. McQuillien, who, however, simply acknowledged the compliment with a graceful bow, and did not prolong the programme by giving a second selection.

Prof. Stamm held his orchestra well in hand, and the audience spent a delightful two hours in listening to the attractive programme.

Twenty-third street, between Grand avenue and Hope street. Passed under uspension of the rules. The report of the Clerk further recmmended the passage of ordinances for improving Seventh street, between Main and Pearl streets, and the improving of Ingraham street, between Vernon street and the Fairmount tract. Both of these were passed under suspension of the rules. A report was received from the Health Officer asking that the City En-gineer be ordered to make an estimate of the filling and grading of lot 10, block 6, Centennial avenue, in order that the health department may proceed intelligently in an action to abate the nuisance on that lot. Adopted. The report of the City Auditor was received and filed.

The report from the manager of the free labor bureau stated that during the past week there had been 110 applications for employment received, and thirty-four positions secured. He asked for an appropriation from the Council of $15 additional per month. He believed that if an assistant could be employed in the bureau it would give him an opportunity to secure more situations for those applying for work. This, he stated, could be done if the amount asked could be furnished by the city, and the same amount also by the county. During the past eleven weeks 1665 applications had been received, and 589 positions secured. He be-lieved this would compare favorably with the free labor bureau of Dayton.

In the case of the city against Daniel Freeman to condemn a right-of-way for an outfall sewer, Mr. Freeman filed a cost bill amounting to $526.45. It is now proposed to dismiss this action, we having compro-mised with Mr. Freeman to-obtain a deed for a right-of-way; and I have agreed with him to pay him $162.70 in full for all his costs. Accordingly I have made out a de-mand in his favor for that amount, which I advise be allowed. Referred to the Sewe Committee.

The bidders coupling to be used. The bidders would thus be able to bid more intelligently and at a lower figure.

Councilman Nickell spoke with some eloquence, saying that if the bids could not be submitted now, after all the delay that had already ensued, it was the fault of the contractors and not of the Council Council.

Councilman Gaffey said that since there had been only one bid sub-mitted as yet, it would seem proper to let the matter lay over for a thort time. Councilman Nickell spoke again with still more eloquence, saying that he was still more cloquence, saying that he was there as a representative of the people of the city and not of the contractors. As long as he should stay in the Council chamber he would raise his voice in favor of the people. MONEY FOR THE SCHOOLS.

President Pepper of the Board of Education appeared before the Council in behalf of the board, and asked that in behalf of the board, and appropriation of $15,214.40 be an appropriation of the Council. He granted the board by the Council. He urged that if such aid could not be granted, then the whole curriculum of the schools would be interfered with. This would be brought about by reason of the schools having to be closed on June 2, instead of June 28. He also spoke of the report of the Health Officer in regard to the sanitary condition of some of the schools, and asked an additional approprition of $2500 for the purpose of putting the buildings in sanitary condition. The matter was referred to the Finance Committee. ELECTRIC LIGHTS.

SENATE BILL 693.

What Assemblymen Simpson and Bulla Say About It.

Carpenter Knew That the Measure Had Been Defeated

Within Fifteen Minutes After the Vote Was Taken in the House

A Conversation Which Took Place at Mr Bulla's Desk Fixes That Fact Beyond All Shadow of Doubt-Corroborative Evidence

Senate Bill 698 is now a cause celebre in California legislation. This is the act which was introduced by Senator Carpenter in the Senate and passed by that body but failed of passage in the House. Notwithstanding this, the bill was signed by Senator Carpenter as president pro tem of the Senate, wen through all the formalities of enrollment and was signed by the Governor.

THE TIMES of Saturday last contained an interview with Assemblyman Frank G. Finlayson, in which that gentleman stated that he had charge of the bill in the House, at the request of Senator the House, at the request of Senator Carpenter, its author. He had the bill called up out of order as a matter of courtesy, and it went through two readings. On third reading the bill was defeated by a decided vote. These circumstances are firmly imbedded in Mr. Finlayson's mind, and he further stated in that interview that he spoke to Senator Carpenter about its defeat, either shortly before or directly after it had been finally acted upon.

Since the Finlayson interview in Try

Since the Finlayson interview in THE TIMES several assertions have been made that Senator Carpenter was unaware of the true status of the case when he signed it in his capacity of president pro tem of the Senate as a president pro tem of the Senate as a legally-passed bill. To thoroughly sift the matter to the bottom a Times repre-sentative yesterday continued the in-vestigation begun in the Finlayson interview, and called on Assemblyman Robert N. Bulla, at his office in the Temple Block, and on Assemblyman Cyrus M. Simpson, at his office in Pasadena. Mr. Finlayson was also seen again, but beyond reiterating what has already been published, he could throw no further light on the subject, except to say that he thinks he made mention of the bill's defeat before the Legislature adjourned.

Mr. Bulla, when requested to state what he knew about Senate Bill 693, was very frank about the matter. He distinctly remembers that within about fifteen minutes after the bill's final de-feat, Senator Carpenter was at his (Mr. Bulla's) desk in the Assembly. Assembluman Simpson was within ear-shot at the time, and Assembly-man Finlayson was also in the vicinity, but not as close as Assem-blyman Simpson. Both Messrs. Bulla and Simpson had voted against the bill, and when Senator Carpenter came to Mr. Bulla's desk the latter remarked: "Senator, I'm sorry I had to vote against your bill, but, in my opinion, the time, ninety days, is too short. It should be at least one year." To this Senator Carpenter replied, as well as Mr. Bulla can remember: "Oh, well, if the Assembly refuses to pass it, that settles it. It is of no special interest

Assemblyman Simpson, when seen later in the day at Pasadena, was shown Mr. Bulla's statement and fully corrob-orated it. He remembered the circumstances and the conversation between Senator Carpenter and Mr. Bulla as detailed by the latter to the TIMES representative. Mr. Simpson couldn't say positively whether this conversation occurred exactly fifteen minutes after the bill's defeat, but, as well as he could remember, it was certainly within a half-hour thereafter. Mr. Simpson said he could not be mistaken in the matter, as he, himself, had made an argument against the bill on the floor of the House, giving as his reason that he was opposed to administering upon a man's estate before it was absolutely known that the man was dead, and that ninety days was entirely too short a time to find this out in some cases. Shortly after the bill was defeated, a fact which Mr. Simpson says there can be no doubt of, he went to Mr. Bulla's desk, and while there Senator Carpenter came in, and the conversation as given above took place between Messrs. Bulla and Carpenter.

Foolhardy Liquor Men-

It was reported yesterday that the movement for the disruption of the Police Commission was still actively on, and that Councilman Strohm had pledged himself to act with the Demo-crats to bring about this result. It is known that for some days past the saloon men have been very active in working up this sentiment, it being understood that the object to be attained is the re-moval of Chief Glass. It has also been learned that a delegation of the saloon men waited on Chief Glass to ascertain whether or not he intended to enforce the Sunday-closing ordinance. They were informed that it was the intention of the officer to carry out the law, as he had no discretion in the premises; whereupon the delegation, and subse-quently other delegations, waited upon Mayor Rowan in order to "work" that officer. Councilman Strohm, it is reported, agreed to cooperate with the Democrats to secure a change in the head of the police department.

Should this result be brought about, the change being made for the purpose of allowing a set of men to violate the law, it will prove disastrous to those behind the movement, for the reason that public opinion will not tolerate such methods. As to Councilman Strohm, The Times hopes that the rumor concerning his intentions is not well founded. He has no occasion to destroy bimself politically.

The very proper, moderate and con-servative regulation of the liquor traffic now in force is the distinct official expression of a clearly-defined public sen timent, which was elicited after a square and stubborn public contest, and that regulation cannot be overthrown without provoking an outburst of public indignation which will surely overthrow the officials who may have the temerity to undertake the dangerous experi-ment. The liquor men and their office-holding champions ought to know when they are well off and have the sagacity to let well enough alone. They can gain no advantages in a fresh contest with the citizens of Los Angeles. On the contrary, the outcome of such a contest might be the drawing still more tightly of the lines of the law.

Labor in San Francisco. Unemployed San Francisco working-

Unemployed San Francisco working-men have issued a circular declaring that "the city is crowded with idle men. There are thousands of us tramping the streets, hungry, bopeless and destitute. For God's sake keep away from this city. Advertisements for laborers, sailors or mechanics are false. Place no faith in them. There are ten men here for every job now."

TESTERDAY another big lot of new patterns came to hand. We now have the upper hand of the pattern department, and in the future there will be but little delay. There has been a very large increase in the sale of the Delineator owing to the patterns and De-lineator coming in by mail and express. The fashion sheets are on the way by freight. Delineator subscribers have a decided advantage in the selection of new patterns, Another new lot of cape patterns; the demand has been very large, anothernew lot of large skirt patterns; already telegrams have gone forward for more. Broadcloths, suitable for capes, all shades and all prices. Even if you have a jacket you will need a cape; big sleeves demand capes. We now have a new lot of capes at $5, $6.50, $7.50, $8, $10, $12; prices that draw trade; they are new today. Come in and see them. We are keeping up with the procession. Greater selling each week. There has been a radical change in the cloak department; it is very noticeable; the improvement has been for the better. The big increase is still going on in dress goods. The dress goods trade now stands at the very top notch. Moderate prices and good treatment; not only this, but a determination to draw trade to the dress goods department by extra attention; by giving samples; by showing goods freely. We hold out no false idea of selling goods cheaper than anyone else. How could we? Such statements are barren of fruit. Moderate-priced dress goods 50c, 60c, 65c, 75c, 85c, 90c, $1. We chip the prices wherever we can, and watch to improve the service and increase the trade. We cannot afford to charge you more than any one else. Dress goods selling now at its best. Greatest silk season for years. Cheney Bros.' best American silks $1 a yard; they are unmatchable for wear and style. New wrappers in the cloak department; well made and stylish, $2 to $8. Moderate-priced millinery and the best styles. Sale this week of nicely trimmed hats, $2, $2.50, $3, $3.50, $4, $4.50, $5; untrimmed hats, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1. This is millinery week for moderate prices; special prices in the millinery department all this week. Have you seen the new laces? A big season for new style laces. As the weather brightens laces increase in sales.

Foreign wheat has been a subject of speculation, but the trade on Tuesday and Saturday last was exhausted and the market flat. The overstock amounts to 243,000 quarters. It is feared the market at the leading ports will be depressed by the excessive offers. The total imports of wheat thus far amount to 334,000."

New York Stocks.

New York, April 17.—The order issued by the Treasury Department Saturday, suspending the further issue of gold certificates, followed, as it was, by a rise in the rates of sterling exchange, and exports of $1,750,000 in gold by tomorrow's of $1,750,000 in gold by tomorrow's steamer, showed a depressing effect on the stock market today. The action of Secretary Carlisle gave the bears renewed courage, and they attacked the market victously, more especially such stocks in which they knew there would be forced liquidations if the downward movement carries far enough. The most vulnerable proved to be Manhattan, which broke 11½ points to 148½ and closed at 149. Many weak holders were compelled to sell out and the decline was helped along by reports that the company would reject offers made by the Rapid Transit Commission. Pullman Palace Car dropped 5; Tennessee Coal and Iron, 3½; National Cordage, 2½; Sugar, 2½; General Electric, 2; Burlington and Western Union, 1½; Lead Trust preferred, 2; New York, Susquehanna and Western preferred, 1½, and Lead Trust common, 1½ per cent. PASADENA.

Lively Times in the Council Chamber.

Mayor Weed Scores ex-City-Enginee Mayer—Postponement of the Paving Project—Personal Notes and Brevities.

Ordinarily there is nothing particularly lively about a Pasadena City Council meet-ing, but yesterday furnished one of the exceptions that prove the rule. Shortly after 2 o'clock President Weed called the Board of Trustees to order. Every member was present, and, strange to say, the visitors end of the Council chamber was crowded. The unusual assemblage comprised as-phaltum men, bituminous rock men, petition signers, bank presidents, civil en-gineers, interested property-owners and several representative gentlemen of leisure, all of whom came in the hope of seeing some fun extracted from as dry a subject as an asphaltum street pavement, or to assist in bringing about such a result.

THE FUN BEGINS The fun came early in the proceedings, and for a time the facetiousness of the occasion was strongly marked. After the minutes of the preceding meeting had been read by Clerk Dyer and approved and all bills filed to date had been referred to the Auditing Committee, the motion was put to open the bids for paving the business streets of the town with asphaltum, as set forth in the specifications. President Weed then inquired if any one had anything to say on the subject, whereupon Milford Fish stepped to the front and submitted a petition signed by a number of property owners, asking for a postponement in the matter of awarding a contract at present, on the grounds that the specifications are incomplete. By permission Mr. Fish next proceeded to read a communication written by ex-City Engineer Mayer, the substance of which was printed in yesterday's issue of The Times, setting forth at length the objections of the petitioners to the specifications.

Following the communication. Came an explanation on the part of Mr. Mayer, who took occasion in the course of his remarks to assert that he was not acting from sellish motives at all, but simply to secure the hest possible payement. When asked whyhe had not registered his objections earlier, the specifications having been on file for a month past, instead of waiting until the day for opening the bids, Mr. Mayer stated it was only recently he had become interested in the subject.

After Mr. Fish had had his say and Mr. Mayer had subsided, Mayor Weed took his turn at the bat. It was noticed that His Honor had been busy for a few minutes, jotting down some notes on paper, and when he proceeded to read therefrom a solemn silence made itself conspicuously numerous, metaphorically speaking. And this is and for a time the facetiousness of the ocwas strongly marked. After the

"In the matter of grading streets I tee "In the matter of grading streets I feel that some explanation is que to the public in vindication of the action of the Trustees against the invidious and unfair representations made in the petition here presented. I fully exouerate all signers of the petition from wrong motive, and only charge the instigator thereof with culpability. It is not true that the Street Committee did not thoroughly and fully investigate the whole manner of putting down asphaltum pavement in the several cities visited for that purpose, but, on the contrary, did make particular examination, and sought the best and most reliable information obtainable; and that the action of all of the Trustees, in adopting specifications for the work, was based upon the best knowledge obtainable. Mr. Mayer's statements or opinions are entitled to no weight or consideration with his board after the experience had with him in completing the sewer system. Nearly one year ago this board was induced to believe Mr. Mayer to be a very competent man to supervise the laying of the sewer main to the sewer farm, a distance of a little more than a mile, after all preliminary surveys had been made that some explanation is due to the public very competent man to the sewer farm, a distance of a little more than a mile, after all preliminary surveys had been made. He demanded the sum of $750 for such service. The board deeming him competent and not for a moment suspecting his integrity, contracted with him to do so. The sequal shows that Mr. Mayer wholly his integrity, contracted with him to do so. The sequal shows that Mr. Mayer wholly neglected every requirement on his part, causing or permitting such sewer main to be put down in an unworkmanlike and unskillful manner contrary to ordinary commonsense principles, and in gross violation of the specifications relating to the same, and before the board could possibly test the efficiency of the work he certified that the work was completed according to the specifications, presented his bill and collected his pay. The only real service I have any knowledge of performance by Mr. Mayer in the aforesaid matter was to intrigue with one Bishop. a land-owner, over which the sewer main passed, which caused this city to pay several hundred dollars. The result of the sewer matter is too well known to the people of Pasadena to require comment. After purchasing over eleven hundred feet of steel pipe, and the expenditure of between $1000 and $2000 by the city since Mr. Mayer received his $7ā0, the sewer is in a very unsatisfactory condition."

ENSUING EXCITEMENT. By the time the Mayor had finished the audience exhibited unmistakable signs of excitement. Attorney Arthur was grinding a big wad of paper to pulp between his autience exhibited uninistagable signs of excitement. Attorney Arthur was grinding a big wad of paper to pulp between his molars, Trustee Clark vigorously tapped the table with a nickel leadpencil, Trustee Lukens teetered to and fro in his big arm chair, while Trustees McQuiling and Cox turned their faces toward the wall and tried to look pleasant. Mr. Mayer's countenance assumed several different hues, as if by anger moved, while the Mayor read, and next him sat Dr. Firth pulling his handsome beard vigorously in a very paroxysm of excitement.

"That," said Mayor Weed, as he laid down the paper, "is my opinion of Mr. Mayer. Let it go for what it is worth."

A moment's silence, and Mr. Mayer moved across the floor and addressed some rather forcible remarks to the Mayor, whereupon the Mayor intimated that Mr. Mayer was unduly excited. Mr. Mayer wanted to know why such a paper had been written, and the Mayor replied that he had confined his thoughts to pen and ink for fear of saying something a good deal worse. These pleasantries continued some little time, interspersed with brief remarks by P. M. Green, who made the very sensible suggestion that provisions for a double street-car track on Raymond and Fair'Oaks arenues, be incorporated in the proceeding's; J. R. Greer, Jr., who emphasized the fact that the petition did not reflect' in any manner on the integrity or good intent of the Council in providing the best pavement obtainable, and P. G. Wooster, who said he would be satisfied with the present specifications if the contracting company would agree to keep the pavements in perfect condition for ten years. A pithy dialogue between Mr. Fish and Mr. Hutton, representing the Los Angeles Asphali Company, was one of the special features of the occasion. Finally, the Councilmen left their seats, and everybody got to talking at once, until it sounded for all the world like a woman's mit soulded for all the world like a woman's mit soulded for all the world like a woman's mit soulded for all the world like a woman's mi it sounded for all the world like a woman's mite society.

The upshot of it all was that a motion was carried to postpone opening the bids for two weeks, in order to afford the petitioners time to procure something more than hearsay evidence to back up their case. At present the members of the Council are convinced that the specifications they have adopted provide for a pavement that will meet all requirements and prove satisfactory to the general public. They, however, are willing to hold themselves open to conviction, and if, at the end of two weeks, they are led to believe that the changes suggested by Mr. Mayer are desirable, new specifications will be drawn up and the whole thing gone over again.

A meeting of the petitioners was held latter, and J. R. Greer, Aug. Mayer, Milford Fish and M. E. Wood were appointed a committee to look up their side of the case. OTHER BUSINESS

Mayor Weed was granted an absence of pinety days. He expects to leave Thursday on an Eastern trip.

In response to a petition presented by George W. Stimson, a resolution was passed declaring a certain portion of land owned by the petitioner, south of California street and immediately west of the Terminal Railroad, and marked "driveway" on the maps, vacated, such land having never been used as a highway.

A resolution of intention was passed to lay a sewer on Orange place, from Delacy street to Fair Oaks avenue. The district affected will include residences on the south side of Valley street, between the streets above named, and a portion of the north side of Peach place.

A resolution of intention was passed to lay a sewer on Euclid avenue, between Colorado and Walnut streets, as petitioned for by the property owners.

Resolutions of intention were also passed to lay a sewer on Walnut street, a distance of 377 feet east-of Raymond avenue, and on Concord court, Arcadia street and through certain private property.

A lease of the dog farm, as prepared by Jesse Knight, attorney for the estate of D. R. McLean, deceased, was accepted.

An ordinance was passed establishing the grade of Waverly drive, between Fair Oaks and Passadena avenues.

Alex. F. Mills was granted permission to lay an eight-inch pipe across Fair Oaks avenue at the alley in the rear of the San Gabriel Valley Bank building, another eight-inch pipe across the avenue at the alley in the rear of the Carlton, another across Colorado street at Mills street and still another on Raymond, avenue at the alley in the rear of bore's stable, so that gas mains for the new company may be secured without necessitating the tearing up of the streets after they are paved.

B. O. Kendall was granted permission to lay a six-foot cement sidewalk on the west side of Los Robles avenue, a short distance south of Eldorado street.

Petitions were presented, signed by numerous property-owners, askin

Sargent and outer-The action was brought by the plaintiff to restrain the defendants from diverting the water from the Santa Ana River, about three miles above the plaintiff's headgate, the rights of both parties being based upon appropriation. The opinion states: "The plaintiff claims that it is entitled to divert all the water of the Santa Ana River that runs in it during the irrigating season, as against any right of the detendants. The against any right of the defendants. The matter for consideration is, have the defendants shown a prior right to the plaintiff! I think that the evidence unquestionably shows that they have. The only question then for determination is as to the extent of that right." After a deliberate discussion of this point the following decree was rendered: "I therefore conclude that the only satisfactory decree that can be entered in this case to protect the defendants, without speculating upon their rights, is to award them the right to continue to divertand use all the waters of the Santa Ana River during the irrigating season, from April 15 to September 15 of each and every year, that may flow down to their point of diversion, the same to be diverted, and that the injunction be dissolved, and the defendants recover their costs and the plaintiffs take nothing."

The case is one that has been pending before the courts many months. Eminent counsel have been employed, and scores of witnesses subpenaed on both—sides. The decision settles a controversy of many years standing.

Transcontinental Freight Rates Are Becoming Mixed.

Chicago Report of More Traffic Combinations.

The San Diego Railway Project is Being Kept Alive.

The Freight Agents' Debating Society Adjourned-If They Did Anything, Nobody Knows It-Local News.

The Union Pacific gives notice that it will, until the 24th inst., carry freight routed by that line at the rates shown n the latest west-bound tariff, No. T1 in connection with the Chicago and Northwestern and Missouri Pacific railways. These rates will remain in force until the 24th inst, inclusive, after which date only the rates as shown therein, as applying from Chicago and St. Louis territories and west thereof, as specified in the above tariff will apply. Rates from points east of Chicago and St. Louis on and after the 25th and St. Louis on and after the 25th inst, will be quoted on application. This indicates that on and after the 24th there will be some demoralization of rates, which may not be of much benefit to the shipper, but will serve to confuse him. The promises of pools and combines may, however, be fulfilled about that time and a new tariff be the result. If not, the rates will be so fluctuating that quotations will have to be made as the shipper may require. to be made as the shipper may require.

MORE COMBINATIONS. A special dispatch from Chicago, dated the 15th inst., to the San Francisco Chronicle, says: "The most important Western railroad agreement ever made was signed, sealed and de-livered today. It is an exclusive traffic contract on transcontinental and intercontract on transcontinental and inter-mediate freight with the Rock Island, Burlington, Missouri Pacific, St. Paul, Alton, Chicago and Great Western, Wabash, Denver and Rio Grande and Rio Grande Western as the parties. all intents and purposes the business of these roads is pooled. They will present a united front in opposition to all other lines. As nearly as possible the combination will work as a unit, giving each the benefit of the vast number of agents employed by all. The combination is the result of the fight on divisions between the transcentingtal lines and between the transcontinental lines and those east of the Missouri. Two other combinations are in the field. The Southern Pacific-Atchison combination will be the strongest competitor of the allied lines. These two systems originate 90 per cent. or more of the California and Southern Pacific Coast busifornia and Southern Pacific Coast business. The allied lines will attempt to neutralize this advantage as much as possible by sending agents into the Pacific Coast strongholds of the Southern Pacific and Atchison to divert business to the cembination lines at Ogden. The advantage on this business will always coming the the Achienes Ad Sauthern remain with the Atchison and Southern Pacific, but the inevitable contest is certain to have a demoralizing effect on

THE spring trade in this line has been something astonishing this year. The garments that are shown are the nobbiest that have ever been produced, Capes tower above all, and to our minds they are the most sensible garments made. Like everything we do, we have taken time by the forelock, and our Cloak Department is crammed, jammed with the handsomest line of goods you have ever seen, and the most astonishing part of it is that they are marked so low. In Capes we are showing over 200 different styles, ranging in price from $2.00 to $35.00. In Jackets we are showing 100 different styles, and you can have them either with a single, double or triplicate cape, or if you prefer it without any cape at all. We have them to suit all purses and the styles we guarantee are the very latest. Do not think because you are not ready to buy a garment that it will not pay you to see our line, for it certainly will. It will convince you at once that this is the safest place to buy.

Dress Goods.

100 pieces of Novelty Dress Goods have just arrived, and we consider them the best values that we have ever offered for sale. The line comprises plaids, stripes and changeable effects. We can assure you that comprises plaids, stripes and changeable effects. We can assure you that there has been nothing like them—seen in this town before. They range in price from 75c to $2.50 a yard. We are making a special run on a 40-inch Camel's Hair Serge; this you can have in plains, plaids or stripe effects; and it is no idle boast when we say that no such value has ever been offered before at the price we are going to sell them for, which is 35c a yard. We received by express today 25 cuts of a sublime quality of plaid silk velvets. These goods are being retailed in the East at $4.50 a yard. We bought them under price and are going to sell them the same way. They will be placed on sale Monday morning at $2.50. We would also like to call your attention to the large stock of Black Dress Goods than we carry. Our line of Black Novelties has been pronounced by all who have seen them to be the finest and the best value that has ever been offered. You can buy them from 50c a yard to $2.50. In our Silk Department it would be much easier for us to tell you what In our Silk Department it would be much easier for us to tell you what we have not got than what we have. Never in the history of our business have we carried such a line of silks before. Our salesmen tell us that there is not a shade made that is not represented in our line. We cordially invite you to come in and see the line, for we feel sure that you have no idea what an enormous stock it is.

Great Embroidery Sale

Tomorrow we start a gigantic Embroidery sale. The values which we are going to offer you eclipse anything every attempted before. The goods are now on display in our show window, and the prices will be 8½c and 15c. The line comprises the handsomest Swiss and Cambric Needlework that the market affords. We do not expect this sale will last very long, for while we have a large quantity of these goods we expect the hovers will be out in force. pect the buyers will be gut in force.

Millinery Dept.

Our second Spring Opening was a big success. Our new imported Pattern Hats far excelled anything that we have ever shown. Five of them were sold on Saturday. There are only eight more left, and we are confident that by Monday night they will all be sold. Our stock of Trimmed Hats has been conceded by all to be finer than anything seen in this city. Our shapes are the latest, new ones arriving daily which puts us on a par with New York. In flowers, no such stock would ever dare to be carried by any one except ourselves. We aim to have everything that is called for. We are displaying a very handsome line of ornaments, likewise ribbons; in fact the cream of the market in everything appearing to Millinery can always be found in our department. appertaining to Millinery can always be found in our department.
